SUMMON

Re : Mr [JOHN]

Sirs,

I am writing to you in the name of my client, Mr [JOHN].

From the documents that have been forwarded to me, it appears that all the services related to the pilot training program that was supposed to be provided by Tritar Consulting & Services and Type Line Training and for which he paid an amount of 47.500 Euros, was not rendered to him.

Moreover due to permanent delays, some services that has been provided are useless as of now (six months without training after the last flight).

Under those conditions, my client has requested the reimbursement of the following amounts, according to his email dated September ██████████ 2015:

- 6.000 € for nine months of leaving
- 15.000 € for flights non executed
- 5.000 € for your commission (estimate)

i.e. an amount of 26.000 €.

This amount of 26.000 € does not take in account all the damages suffered by Mr [John]. However, Mr [John] is ready to accept this lump sum, provided that the payment is made within the next seven days.

Accordingly, I hereby summon you to pay this amount of 26.000 Euros directly to Mr [John] within the next seven days. In case of non payment within such time period, I must advised you that have received all instructions from my client to bring any action that may be necessary for the protection of his rights.

I remain at the disposal of your Lawyer to discuss about this matter.

Sincerely
